Doctor of Philosophical Sciences, Professor, Head of the Department of Philosophy of Yaroslav Mudryi National Law University.

The history of the University dates back to the XIXth century, when on November 17, 1804, by the order of Emperor Alexander I, the Kharkiv Imperial University was established. It included the Department of Ethic and Political Sciences, which in 1835 was officially renamed into the Faculty of Law of the University (Tatsiy, Bytyak & Getman, 2014, p. 9).

Today, Yaroslav Mudryi National Law University is one of the most authoritative institutions of higher education in Ukraine. It is a recognized training centre for highly professional lawyers for various areas of legal practice and an active participant in building the rule of law in Ukraine.

The University has significant scientific and pedagogical potential. Teaching, research and educational work are provided by 38 departments by more than 700 teachers. Among them are more than 130 doctors of sciences, professors, more than 500 candidates of sciences, associate professors; academicians and corresponding members of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, the National Academy of Legal Sciences of Ukraine, etc. (Tatsiy, 2020, p. 14).

Today, almost 10,000 students study at the University. The structure of the University includes 6 educational institutes, four full-time faculties, evening and correspondence faculties, as well as separate structural subdivisions (Poltava Law Institute, Institute of Management and Law (Kyiv), Poltava Law College).
